

J. Lee Lashway

Of Counsel | Eugene Office

Lee's practice focuses on business formation, transactions, securities law compliance (capital formation), and representation of issuers in sales of warrants, convertible notes, and equity interests. Since 2000, Lee has had principal responsibility for securities compliance in over $15 million in registered and exempt offerings.

Among others, representative clients have included medical and dental practice management companies, consumer and commercial product designers and manufacturers, ambulatory surgery centers, senior living facilities, and internet ecommerce companies. He also has significant experience with clients in the fly fishing industry.

Lee is a long-time Eugene resident and has been practicing law in Eugene since 1979. Lee first moved to Eugene from Montana with his family in 1963 and later graduated from North Eugene High School. He is an active community member, serving on various Boards of Directors and as a fast pitch softball coach.
