

Jens Schmidt

Shareholder | Eugene Office

Jens is a trial and appellate lawyer. He represents individuals, businesses, higher education institutions, and state and local governmental entities in civil litigation in the state and federal trial and appellate courts, as well as before administrative agencies. He defends his clients against employment claims, business and commercial claims, personal injury claims, and civil rights claims.

Jens enjoys working collaboratively with his clients to develop and execute a strategy that will most effectively reach his clients' goals. He also prides himself on managing litigation in ways that assist the client in controlling costs.

He has been practicing with the firm since 1987.
