

Arden J. Olson

Shareholder | Eugene Office

Arden Olson handles matters involving health law, ERISA, insurance law, legal ethics, and complex litigation (including ERISA litigation). His current engagements include helping insurers, coordinated care entities, and health providers with implementing the federal Affordable Care Act, defending lawyers before the Oregon State Bar, and managing health care claims in federal and state courts.

He previously practiced privately in Seattle and in Philadelphia as well as with the Oregon Department of Justice (including serving as General Counsel to SAIF Corporation), before joining HLGR in 1992. He is currently general counsel to a newly created Coordinated Care Organization, and previously served as general counsel to a regional health maintenance organization.
