Overview

Vivian Krupicka's practice focuses on civil litigation.

Vivian has spent her career in criminal and civil litigation and has substantial deposition, mediation, arbitration, motion, and trial experience.

Vivian is a 2012 cum laude graduate of Lewis & Clark Law School. Having clerked at the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office during law school, Vivian began her practice as a deputy DA for an additional five years, gaining significant experience in motion and trial work along with a host of other matters.

Vivian moved to private civil practice in 2017, when she joined one of the nation's largest insurance companies. There, Vivian was engaged in litigation for a robust range of insurance defense matters including tort, property damage, contract, premises liability, subrogation, and other claims.

How I Serve Clients

I use my prior litigation experience in criminal and civil matters to provide well rounded, practical advice prior to litigation and throughout the entire process. Litigation can be stressful, and I aim to keep my clients informed about what they can anticipate and what is happening to reduce that stress as much as possible. When litigation is not the best option, I work to ensure the best possible results based on the specific needs of each client.
